June Brides Share Society Stage With Sport Events

Month Starts With an Unusual Rush of Important Matrimonial Events, While Polo, Racing and Horse Show Also Attract Wide Attention

JUNE brides have had to share the social stage with the many outdoor attractions of the last few days in and near New York. Horse shows, polo, racing, boat races, tennis, golf and garden parties have been attractive features of every day's program in the last week, and they will continue strong drawing cards for society throughout the remainder of the month. The racing at Belmont Park has attracted fashionable gatherings every day, the garden party at Governor's Island, held under the auspices of the Army Relief Society, was well attended last Thursday and the Horse Show at Tuxedo Park, yesterday for the benefit of the Tuxedo Memorial Hospital was a fitting climax of a strenuous week. The affair at the park was the most brilliant held in years, and brought out a large gathering of socially prominent persons. In consequence, the park is very gay over the week end, and for most of the owners of villas are entertaining parties and the clubhouse is filled with guests. The annual Westchester County Horse Show is one of the attractions still to come. It will be held from June 15 to 18 at Gideon Farm, on the outskirts of White Plains. This will be attended by all the members of the Westchester set, who will do much entertaining in connection with the event.

A fair and tea will be held next Friday afternoon at Greentree, the country place at Manhasset, L. I., of Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney. It will be for the benefit of the babies' milk funds of the Nassau County association and the New York Hospital. All kinds of articles will be on sale, including antique bargains from auctions, old prints, livestock, including lambs, calves and dogs. A pony and cart will be raffled.

Newport Arrivals Dispel Prospects Of a Dull Season

Many Cottages Are Opened and Scheduled Newcomers Will Swell Colony Until Advent of "Regulars"

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
NEWPORT, June 4.—Prospects of a dull summer are completely shattered. Not that a brilliant season is predicted, but with the number of arrivals already, and those due, a lively time is assured. Moreover, there is the contingent of "regulars" abroad, a number of whom are expected back to spend a portion of the season in Newport. The rental of cottages has been going on steadily. There are still houses available.

The beautiful estate of Mrs. H. Mortimer Brooks on the cliffs has been the object of much speculation the past week. It has attracted the interest of a New York millionaire who recently has looked over the estate, and is considering the buying of it for residential purposes. It has been unoccupied for several years.

The links of the Newport Country Club have been opened for the season until Saturday, many arrivals are already taking morning dips, and the courts of the Casino are gaining rapidly in activity.

There is to be plenty of yachting here this summer, according to the advance indications, and an encouraging number of vessels already have arrived. Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, who has leased Sea Cove for the season, arrived on W. K. Vanderbilt's yacht Eagle.

The Art Association is planning among its summer activities a series of concerts, which are to be given in its new hall.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Horace Gallatin, Mrs. Austen Gray and Mrs. Richard Gambrill will arrive June 15. Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin is expected in a short time. Mr. and Mrs. T. Suffer Taylor will arrive the latter part of the week, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Curtiss James are due about that time. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Davis have planned to come on June 10, and Mr. and Mrs. William Woodward on June 6. The summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, who is returning from Europe the latter part of June is being opened.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Clifford Browne, of 107 West Seventy-eighth Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elsie Colt Grey, to W. Ormand Buttlar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buttlar, of 617 West End Avenue.
